Dear Mr. Davison:-

I have your letter of September 16th, and I am very sorry that I was out when you called last Saturday, as I would like to have seen you very much.

As regards the medal to be issued by the Society, there have been a number of unforeseen and unavoidable delays. I am hoping, however, to be able to send out a circular announcing this medal before the first of October. It is a plaque by Fuchs in commemoration of Mr. Morgan.

Hoping that you will be up this way again sometime before very long,
I am,

Dear Sir:-

I have your letter of the 9th, and am writing to ask if you will not reconsider your resignation from our Society. This year has been one of great growth, and it has been, and is going to be, our effort to be of greater service to our members. We need the support of members like yourself capable of giving information and aid of a practical nature. The distance between your city and our building is something of a handicap, but I am sure you must, with our other members, feel a pride in our collections and their growth. May I therefore ask that you continue the support which has been so much appreciated in the preceding years?

Yours very truly,

Secretary.

Gentlemen:

Some time ago I sent in my resignation as a member of your Society, and I presume it was excepted, although I have been receiving the book in Publication and Notices of all the meetings. As I explained in my previous letters as I never availed myself of the facilities of the Society, I decided to drop out.

Kindly let me know if my resignation was properly acted upon.
